ABSTRACT

The entitled project ‘TourChalo’ is a tourism website that provide tour packages and destination holidays, integrated with a video section that provide customers a whole new experience that makes them sure about the kind of services they are going to get while travelling with ‘TourChalo’. This website is to revolutionize the way tour packages are sold in the market right now. It is constructed with taking the real life marketing situations in consideration and to provide best experience to both customer and the agents that are there to increase their business.

The website is a complete product for a tourism agency plus it contains an integrated but Stand-alone video section that enhances the user experience. The video section can also be used as a portal for user viewership like ‘TVF play’ and ‘Netflix’. The website provides a complete session based experience to the user and provide every possible facility that a tourism website should have along with some perks that the user experience while using the website.

There is facility of having user’s own profile, dashboard and facilities that help a travel users to promote their product. This website connect the user with the vendor and thus makes things simpler and better. Project also has an admin panel that provides the website administrator a complete control over various activities on the website. The website is composed of various tour packages based on the existing market study making the project more realistic and relevant to the industry.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In order to complete any project or mission, it is ensured that the person associated with it is patient, sincere and humble. With the absence of any one of these attributes, errors can be committed. At the outset, I would like to propose a word of thanks for the people who gave us unending support and help. Many people have been the constant source of inspiration, encouragement and assistance in several ways.

I am highly indebted to Mr. Krishna Avatar Singh who gave me the opportunity to use my skills and enhance them while working at Enterweb Infosoft and introducing me to the world of entrepreneurship, Mr. Dharmendra Kushwaha who was there whenever I needed a word of advice and as a true mentor and helping me in understanding different aspects of SEO (Search Engine Optimization) and Digital Marketing, Ms. Vaishali Kesarwani who guided me with how to design various elements on a webpage in order to stand out and make an impact, Ms. Priyanka Kesarwani for provide a healthy and changeling environment which enhance my skills and motivated me for completing this project.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my respected ATOP Ms. Geetanjali Sharma and TPO Mr. Ravij Bedi for their valuable help and guidance. I am also thankful to Dr. S.K Gupta for providing the concrete concept of databases that helped me a lot in this project. Mrs. Priti Aggarwal for provided necessary assistance with various web technologies.

Lastly, I would like to thanks my family member and parents for supporting me and giving ideas that later developed into a functionality in the project.
